

InSight Demo Tuesdays

Did you know that, as a LanguageLine InSight on-demand video client, you, your staff and your colleagues have access to our free, weekly, on-line training sessions?

At only 20 minutes long, and running at 10 o'clock and 11 o'clock every Tuesday, the sessions are designed with flexibility, practicality and convenience in mind, for people who are busy with 101 other things.

Whether it's for an introduction to InSight on-demand video interpreting for users new to the service, or just as a refresher for existing users, just drop-in! We also cover access to telephone interpreting, plus the sessions are interactive, so if you have any questions just ask away!

To attend the 10 am session, click here & for the 11 am session, click here. If you have any further questions or would like to know more, contact us today.

We hope to see you soon!
